Italy – D (NATIONAL) VISA FOR RE-ENTRY Checklist

List of supporting documents

Dear applicant,

Thank you for your interest in applying for a visa for Italy. The following information is provided to assist you in lodging your application. You are encouraged to read it carefully and take note of all the information provided. It is important for you to do so, as failure to provide any required documents may affect the processing of your application. The re-entry visa is issued for a single entry and a conventional duration of 99 days.

A re-entry visa must be issued to a foreign national in the following cases:

A valid residency permit that has been lost or stolen, subject to verification, at the issuing Questura, of the existence and validity of the permit. In practice, it is not necessary to request a nulla osta for re-entry, but rather a simple verification aimed at confirming the validity of the permit. The foreigner must present a report of theft or loss made to the competent local authorities or by another competent authority.

Residence permit expired no more than 60 days ago - to be extended by up to six months in the case of proven serious health reasons for the foreign national, his first-degree relatives or spouse (subject to the presentation of medical certification deemed suitable by the Representation) - and whose renewal has been requested within the deadline. In such cases, the Questura is not required to issue a nulla osta;

You should lodge your application when you have all the required documents as detailed below.
